A word from our Board President...

By now, many of you have learned about the effort of the Jews of Las Vegas, New Mexico to purchase the building which housed Congregation Montefiore, the oldest synagogue in the state. Located roughly 70 miles east of Santa Fe, Las Vegas became the center of the Jewish population in the New Mexico territory in the mid-1800s, when the railroad brought a steady stream of German Jewish merchants and pioneers into the region. The original building was constructed in 1886 by a community of 36 families, and it had an active membership for many years. But by the mid-fifties, the Jewish community there had shrunk so much that they could no longer maintain themselves, and reluctantly, they sold the building to a rancher who, soon after, sold it to the Archdiocese of Santa Fe, which used the building as the Catholic Newman Center at New Mexico Highlands University. All that changed when the Archdiocese had to declare bankruptcy in the wake of payments the church made to settle the many claims of abuse, and the building became available for sale. Now with many recent Jewish residents plus renewed interest in the town because of its history of Crypto-Jews, the Las Vegas Jewish community felt confident enough to reclaim the building for community use and launched their fundraising campaign. Many members of Beth-El were moved by the story and have donated. But they have also asked that the Temple itself respond with a donation.

Remembering and restoring our history is a major dynamic in the American Jewish identity. At the same time, the mitzvah of tzedakah, charity, is a moral imperative. So you might think it would be easy for Temple Beth-El to support the Las Vegas appeal, particularly for such an important Jewish landmark in New Mexico. But this is not actually the case. Temple Beth-El does not have a category in our budget specifically designated to make donations from the synagogue. So when the board was asked to make a donation, we wanted to respond but did not know how. Should we ask the Sisterhood and the Mensch Club? They both make sizable charitable gifts from their respective budgets. Could we share money from a fundraising activity like we do with the Matzo Ball Open? Their local charity had already been designated. Why not send an appeal directly to each member? The Social Action Committee rapidly raised several thousand dollars from many individuals to support the Afghan Refugee Project. With these models, we know the congregation is already very generous. However, as significant as these donations may be (and they are significant), they are largely ad hoc, patchwork responses. Turning to the Sisterhood or sending periodic appeals directly to members is not a reliable strategy to expand congregational tzedakah. At Yom Kippur, we are told that true atonement is based on prayer, repentance, and charity. Now that we have made a commitment to Rabbi Evette, your dues commitment to support the synagogue this year is one form of charity that is especially meaningful and important. But I am certain we can do better. The Rabbi already has some ideas not only for raising more money, but also how we might create an ongoing mechanism to provide collective tzedakah on behalf of the Temple. These ideas have to be discussed, and your input is very valuable. Congregation Montefiore has successfully met its fundraising goal, and If we decide to adopt some new channels for tzedakah, next time we can offer a sustainable and timely response to support issues we care about. Shana Tova , may we all be blessed with a happy and sweet New Year!

L'Shalom

In order to ensure that the name of your loved one will be recited during services, we have instituted the following practices:

- The Hebrew dates for each week's Yahrzeits are listed in each Adelante.
- Names are read on the Shabbat following the Yahrzeit, or on the day, if it falls on that Shabbat.
- Hebrew vs. conventional (Gregorian) calendar: The temple's tradition is to base the Yahrzeits list on the Hebrew calendar. Those who wish to have a name read on a Friday night close to the conventional (Gregorian) calendar date are asked to please email or call the Temple office a few days prior to the service.

*Asterisks indicate that a loved one has been permanently memorialized with a plaque in the Temple sanctuary. If you are interested in acquiring a plaque for your loved one, contact the Temple office. Current TBE members may purchase a plaque for $300. Non TBE members may purchase a plaque for $600.

TBE Religious School

September 11, 2022– We had a very busy day. We picked apples for Rosh Hashanah, visited service dogs and the amazing people who train them to help veterans at “4 Paws and a Wake Up”, then had lunch at La Llarona Park.

Shofar across Borders, September 18, 2022

Members of Temple Beth-El (including a contingent from religious school), joined with both the larger El Paso and Las Cruces Jewish community at the border wall to sound the shofar with the Jewish community in Juarez as has been a meaningful tradition for several years.

Temple Beth-El Board of Trustees Meeting Summary for September 15, 2022

Rabbi Evette offered a prayer

Agenda was discussed and the following items were added: Discussion of library, Discussion to support congregation of Las Vegas, NM with their capital fund to re-purchase their old synagogue building.

The minutes from August meeting were approved.

Jon Bairnsfather and David Newman, Katherine Barit, Lenore Hindin, Sherry Gara and Jill Kerr were approved as new members.

Membership Committee

Alison Mann, standing in for Martha Roditti reported that welcome gift baskets for all new members from 2022 had been delivered.

Rabbi report

Shabbat activities are being sent out weekly by e-blast with links to new melodies and CCAR virtual prayerbook.

Kabbalat Shabbats are Friday nights @ 6:30, with a Sisterhood sponsored Oneg.

Shabbat Shacharits are Saturday mornings @ a new time, 10:30am after the weekly Talmud study. 1st and 3rd Saturdays are stripped-down to allow maximum time for Torah study. 2nd and 4th Saturdays include a full Torah service.

Rabbi Evette would like to implement a dairy/pescatarian potluck Kiddush following activities Shabbat morning.

Learning sessions now are occurring Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, and Saturday. New members are coming to these sessions.

High Holiday plans are progressing. Many opportunities to participate still available. Sukkot plans in progress. Dave Decker is making building plans according to Rabbi's conceptual design. Rabbi and Nan discussed the Rabbi installation weekend. November 4-6 has been set aside for Rabbi installation. Several options for timing were suggested. Event will be afternoon of 11/6. Nan and Rabbi should meet to determine the order of events.

Treasurer Report

Income tracking ahead of the plan, very large pledge inflow in July ($40,000) and August ($17,000). Income may be ahead of budget by year's end owing to new members and their pledges. This is offset by pledge reduction appeals from time to time which are confidential.

Rabbi will get a new monitor, no substantive change to our financial position.

Matzo Ball income may be ahead of payment to Picacho Hills Country Club expense, we budgeted payment to PHCC ahead of income. No material deviation.

John Schwedinger was hired to do tech support and is doing very well for us. He has been asked to support Social Action Committee candidates' forum, and High Holidays when he can.

Ways and Means Report

Wendee Lorbeer has December 4 penciled in for a fundraiser. A local renowned artist has left a legacy of valuable pieces, which we would show and sell, with 50% to artist. The Dona Ana Arts Council (DAAC), can help get the word out. Two of our new members are artists, too. Donna Popky knows some artists. Board was enthusiastic about such an event.

President's Report

Nan said we need a policy as to how and whether to solicit members for charities outside of our own. Steve suggested further consideration, as we would not come to resolution immediately.

Nan discussed High Holiday security with Mark Saltman. Mark will hire the security firm for physical guard presence.

Dee noted that we will have outdoor Oneg after Erev Rosh Hashanah. Diane said 39 people have indicated they will be present at Rosh Hashanah.

Rabbi prefers not to have to lock up, i.e., be the last one there. More generally it should not be upon her for any Shabbats. It should fall upon the ushers to lock up.

Religious Practices

Parts have been assigned for Erev Rosh Hashanah and Rosh Hashanah. Cherri will contact Stuart Kelter and Leora Zeitlin to have them let people know what their parts are. Parts for Kol Nidre and Yom Kippur will be assigned later.

Religious School

Children are enjoying the turf and playing outside. A worthwhile investment.

We had a good turnout at apple picking and a visit to a service dog training center. This week we are going to a Family Learning Day at Temple Mt Sinai. Then, we are off for 2 weeks for holidays. We will have 4 teaching sessions in October. [updates: Josh Berkman, a student at NMSU, will teach the 5-7 grade class. October 9th was added to religious school schedule]

Social Action

Social Action is planning to host candidates' debate, October 11, 18, and 25. Two Commissioner candidates are attending. Other have not yet responded. Time limitations will be imposed on speakers.

Other comments

Steve H. says we need to have a mission statement for the library. He will contact Linda Kruger, the Chair of the Library committee to determine what type of catalog we are currently using and will research other options as needed.

We need to have an up-to-date calendar on the Temple web site.

Wendee Lorbeer will update the Temple's standing ad in the Las Cruces Bulletin.

At least one Board member should be present for every service. Steve will update and send out a spreadsheet for board members to sign up.

Submitted by Joel Seigal (edited for space in Adelante by Beth Tierney). Full minutes available by request.

Celebrating Art & Friendship

What: Art Show

When: December 4, 2022,

1-4 pm

Where: Temple Beth-El

Temple Beth-El will pay tribute to long-time members, Barney and Ruth Ann Sugarman z'l, with an Art Show featuring the paintings of their dear friend, Annetta Hoover.

Ruth Ann Sugarman was also a painter. She met Annetta Hoover at an exhibit of their work, and they became colleagues and friends. And, as Annetta says, "Barney was the icing on the cake."

To honor the Sugarman's dual commitment to art and the Jewish community, painters who are members of Temple Beth-El are invited to submit up to four pieces for sale in the show. Proceeds will be split 50-50 between the artist and Temple Beth-El.

Painters who want to participate in this celebration should contact Alison Mann (alisonmd4@gmail.com or 575-680-0207) or Joanne Turnbull (turnbulljoanne@gmail.com or 207-831-0310).

Honor the memory of loved ones with a memorial plaque and mark celebrations and milestones (and also the memory of friends and family) by adding leaves to our Tree of Life.

Temple Beth-El is part of Amazon Smile, which offers members of Temple Beth-El an opportunity to participate in Smile Amazon and donates 0.05% of all purchases back to the Temple. The process is very simple – go to www.smile.amazon.com. You will be required to enter the charity to which you wish to donate – just type in Temple Beth-El, Las Cruces in the charity box and this will set the Temple as your charity of choice. Then just shop – pretty easy and since many people today shop online via Amazon, it becomes a win-win situation for all.
