

Celebrating a Legacy of Art and Friendship

You are invited to an art show at Temple Beth-El featuring the work of award-winning painter Annetta Hoover. Now 90 years old, Annetta has been a prominent member of Las Cruces' artistic community with many regional and national awards. Her paintings are in private and corporate collections throughout the United States.

Annetta has chosen to sell more than 25 of her paintings as a Temple fundraiser to honor her friendship with longtime temple members, Barney and Ruth Ann Sugarman (now deceased). Annetta and Ruth met in an art class. Thus, the title of the show, Celebrating a Legacy of Art and Friendship.

As art lovers, we can assure you that this work is not only wonderful (you will see some familiar scenes), but also, for this show, is reasonably priced. Perfect for holiday gifts for yourself or someone else.

Some items are framed, some are not...some are small, some are large... There's a good variety. Along with Annetta's work, six painters from the Temple community will include work in the show with proceeds also benefiting the temple.

We hope to see you there...Please do come! And please share the news of the show with your family and friends...The more the merrier.

Alison Mann and Joanne Turnbull, co-chairs

Celebrating a Legacy of Art and Friendship

Sunday, December 4, 2022, 1:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Temple Beth-El
3980 Sonoma Springs Avenue
Las Cruces, NM 88011