Religious School End of Year Celebration

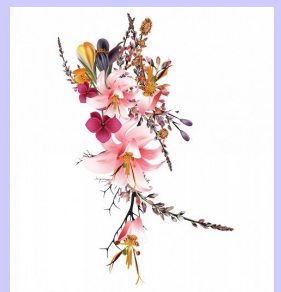

On May 11th, Religious school students, faculty and families met up for our year end celebration: Eat, Pray, Float! We started the morning with a short service at La Llarona Park then floated down the Rio Grande. Afterwards, we were transported back to La Llarona Park for lunch. It was a great time and a special thanks goes out to our co-principals, Rebecca Berkson and Sheri Spiegel for arranging it all. Thank you to Southwest Expeditions for taking care of the float portion of this event.

We have had a wonderful year filled with learning and a lot of fun. Thank you to our students for showing up and to their families for all the support.

The fabulous staff that I had the privilege of working with include Rebecca Berkson and Sheri Spiegel, Co-principals and Middle School teachers, Diane Fleishman, Confirmation teacher, Josh Berkman, Middle School Torah and general support, Rabbi Evette Lutman, confirmation, tefilah and spiritual guidance, Stefani Singer, Special Events, and my amazing daughter, Morgan who helped me teach the Elementary level students.

Condolences to:

- Steven Haydu, whose wife, Karen Hutchison passed away on May 4th. We will miss her easy laugh and her kind, generous nature.
- The family of Natasha Conn who died in her home here in Las Cruces on May 6, at the age of 80. She will be missed by former husband Stephen Conn, and son Stephen Conn.

May their memory be for a blessing.

In order to ensure that the name of your loved one will be recited during services, we have instituted the following practices:

- The Hebrew dates for each week’s Yahrzeits are listed in each Adelante.
- Names are read on the Shabbat following the Yahrzeit, or on the day, if it falls on that Shabbat.
- Hebrew vs. conventional (Gregorian) calendar: The temple’s tradition is to base the Yahrzeits list on the Hebrew calendar. Those who wish to have a name read on a Friday night close to the conventional (Gregorian) calendar date are asked to please email admin@tbelc.org or call the Temple office.

*Asterisks indicate that a loved one has been permanently memorialized with a plaque in the Temple sanctuary. If you are interested in acquiring a plaque for your loved one, contact the Temple office. Current TBE members may purchase a plaque for $300. Non TBE members may purchase a plaque for $600.

Shalom,

As your new President I am aware that we, as a Congregation, have many goals and challenges to meet this year. Together I know we can meet and exceed them. The whole Board is ready to work hard and transparently with you to make this a successful year.

A major goal is to make the Temple more relevant to you. Without your participation, whether it is religiously, educationally and/or socially, we cannot be a thriving congregation. We need for you to let us know what will make Temple Beth El more meaningful for you.

Another challenge is the reality of our financial situation. Several factors have contributed to this situation. One is that we have not had a dues increase in the eleven years I have been a member. Another is the ending of our major fundraiser (JFFF) and the possibility of the loss of the Golf Tournament. On the plus side we have new fundraisers and hope you will work with the Ways and Means Committee with ideas and person power.

We are going to establish a Strategic Planning Committee (SPC) review our needs for the next five years. They will look at our financial needs, spiritual needs, infrastructure needs, our aging membership, and recruitment of new members.

On a positive note, we have a caring supportive community and a small but strong volunteer driven Religious School. We will have three B'nai Mitzvah this Summer and Fall. Our Sisterhood and Mensch Club provide tremendous support to our Congregation. Our Mitzvah Team and others provide transportation, food, and support as needed to all of us.

Please feel free to contact me or any Board member with your ideas, interest in programming or volunteering,
Diane Fleishman, TBE Board President

Sisterhood Notes

Sisterhood has been quiet here in the Adelante these many months. But that ends this month! Starting with June, 2024, look for Sisterhood shout-outs and notes and upcoming activities right here in your Adelante.

Shout-Out to Lynn Zeemont for helping lead the way through the recent Second Seder
Shout-Out to Lenore Hindin for joining the Council and bringing new ideas for activities we hope you will all enjoy.

If you have a shout-out you would like posted here with Sisterhood, send to Stefani Singer. You can thank someone, you can wish them well, you can just say HELLO.

Come to our next Council meeting on June 13... we have been meeting at 4:30, but we want working members to consider attending the meeting so TIME TO BE ANNOUNCED! We are thinking, but we know you have thoughts about Sisterhood too... so, bring your smart self!

Upcoming plans include Girls Night Out and a Membership Champagne Brunch. A Trivia Night is in the works as well as a potential Open Mike and Karaoke. Mix with sparkling wine or other fun cocktail and let your inhibitions go wild! There has been discussion of a regular get-together for breakfast or lunch. Let's get that going too.

Check your Sisterhood Email for events we are starting to plan for the summer. We need you. We need your help. We need your smiling face.

Shalom and L'hitraot,
Your intrepid Council

Adelante Submissions:

Send me your pictures of family Shabbat or Temple events, book recommendations, recipes, illustrations, etc. I will share as many as space allows in each month's Adelante. Please send pictures in JPG and files in .doc format.

A Sneak Peak at Storyteller Noa Baum

Noa “spreads cultural truths that eclipse geopolitical boundaries...her stories transcend their roots” Next January seems like a long way off, but the Social Action/Adult Education Committee would like you to save the date for a weekend with storyteller extraordinaire, Noa Baum. She is an award-winning storyteller, author, coach and public speaker who has presented across the globe for audiences ranging from the World Bank, prestigious universities and congregations, to festivals, government agencies and schools. Born and raised in Jerusalem, Noa’s background enables her to offer a unique combination of performance art and practical workshops which focus on the power of stories to heal across the divides of identity and build bridges of peace. We are planning a weekend of storytelling and workshops which we hope will help us to discover the power of story to ignite the imagination, spark innovation, and to facilitate connection, communication and collaboration. Why are we telling you now? This is going to be a major event for Temple Beth-El and we are in the process of writing grants to the Jewish Federation of El Paso and Las Cruces and the Devasthali Family Foundation which supports the arts, education, and child hunger in southern New Mexico and is administered by the Community Foundation of Southern New Mexico. These grants will help us cover the costs of the event from artist’s fees and expenses, to rentals and publicity. You can help us get our fundraising efforts off the ground by making a donation or becoming a congregational sponsor. Opportunities for sponsorship will be provided at a later date. If you are interested please contact for information on making your donation. You can email the committee at tblcsocialaction@gmail.com. The Social Action/Adult Education committee is really excited to bring Noa Baum to Las Cruces and to share her very special talents with the entire community. Minutes from Temple Beth-El Annual Membership Meeting May 16, 2024

Treasurer Joel Siegel called the meeting to order at 7:09 pm, welcoming all congregant families in attendance which numbered 38 as well as a number on Zoom. The minutes of 2023 were approved.

Rabbi Evette Lutman presented an Invocation. Her message was it is a Mitzvah to be engaged in the business of the congregation and to not separate yourself from the congregation. The basis of her message was to “Hang in There” as we face challenges and work together as a cohesive group.

Joel introduced special guest, Kathy Nagle-Delgado, our new administrator. She said that she feels very privileged to work with us and the Rabbi. She thanked Joel who has trained and supported her through her training.

Membership co-chair Debbie Leyndyke welcomed the four new member families this past year and recognized them by name. One of those, Glenn Phillips and Linda Sweenie were in attendance.

Outgoing President Nan Rubin’s report was included in the packet received by all members in attendance and by email. Rabbi Evette Lutman’s report as well as Committee reports were also included in the packet.

Treasurer Joel Siegel presented a summary of this year’s finances and projected budget for 2024-25. He reported that due to the extreme generosity of individuals and the congregation as a whole, we had a surplus this year. After some explanation, the takeaway message is that even though we have had a very good year it is not likely to be repeated.

He spent some time explaining how we can “Close the Gap” in our projected budget for 2024-25. As member pledges have not increased in at least 15 years, the Board has recommended a 5% increase, which will help but not cover the entire projected deficit. The new Board will meet in June to approve the budget and the pledge increase. They will also explore many other ideas to address the shortfall. The Board has made a commitment to develop a long-term strategic plan. There were many congregant questions which Joel answered.

Board and nominating committee member Mark Singer introduced the slate of new board members: Joel Siegel,

Donna Popky, Deb Leyndyke, Wendee Lorbeer, Diane Fleishman and Jeff Lewis. He explained that this year there are 7 positions to fill but only 6 nominees were introduced. He asked for any nominations from the floor. Debbie Levy entered her name for consideration. This slate was voted on and approved by acclamation for a new Board term of two years.

A slide show of photo highlights from this past year prepared by board member Sheri Spiegel was presented.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:50 pm with a motion by Diane Fleishman, seconded by Lynn Zeemont.

The new Board met following the meeting to approve and seat the following officers.

Diane Fleishman, President
Jeff Lewis, Vice President
Joel Siegel, Treasurer
Sheri Spiegel, Recording Secretary

Respectfully Submitted,

Donna Popky, Secretary

“Have you considered a bequest to Temple Beth-El?”

An important part of our future is represented by bequests made by members.

Thoughtful bequests enable Temple Beth-El to retain a future of Jewish life for generations to come.

REGRETS: HOW TO LIVE WITH "IF ONLY"

Gail L. Braverman, LMFT

Have you ever said to yourself "if only?"

It is a rare person who can say they have no regrets. Every choice we make requires us to leave other choices behind. No matter how good a decision is, there may be those moments when you wonder what it would have been like if you had made a different one. Decisions are about trade offs.

Like most things in life, regret has an up side and a down side. It can be a humiliating and debilitating process, but it can also be a tool for learning. You can learn from your mistakes to move forward, maybe in a different direction.

One of the things that fuels regret is perfectionism that is based on the myth of the ideal life. We live in a culture that tells us we are entitled to be happy and fulfilled all the time, that we shouldn't be frustrated and should have most everything we want. More of everything is being flaunted in commercials, advertisements and magazines. Products become outdated almost as fast they come off the assembly line for something bigger and better. Your expectations and demands about what your life should be can magnify your regrets because regrets are always comparing what you have with what you think you need.

Dos and Don'ts of regrets:

DOs:

Do normalize that we all make mistakes

Do focus on what you can learn, not on what you did wrong.

Do ask yourself what you were thinking when you made the mistake.

Do ask yourself what you were ignoring when you made the mistake.

Do ask yourself how you can use the information you have gathered.

Do ask yourself how you can avoid this mistake in the future.

DON'Ts:

Don't look back on your life and think of how much better off you would have been if you had done something else.

Don't dwell on all the negatives that you experienced and discount all the positives.

Don't idealize the choices that you did not make.

Don't insist that you should have known better.

Don't criticize yourself for not having known better.

Don't measure your choices by the best outcome that you can imagine.

Don't insist that you need to know everything before making a decision.

Don't expect a free lunch. Every decision involves some uncertainty and compromise.

Reflection: You don't have to make decisions based on avoiding regret or by pursuing the perfect answer. Living in the real world requires compromise and settling for less than perfect.

Today's Practice: Recall a decision you made in your life where you had regret but after a while you found the good that came from it.
