From funding our Rabbi to scholarships at our religious school, your generous gift maintains our financial health.

A simple codicil can be added to your existing will, if you wish to make a bequest, such as: “I give and bequest to Temple Beth-El, located in Las Cruces, New Mexico, the sum of $ _____ [or _____ percentage of my estate as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes].”

A will or codicil should be prepared by an attorney.

In order to ensure that the name of your loved one will be recited during services, we have instituted the following practices:

- The Hebrew dates for each week’s Yahrzeits are listed in each Adelante.
- Names are read on the Shabbat following the Yahrzeit, or on the day, if it falls on that Shabbat.
- Hebrew vs. conventional (Gregorian) calendar: The temple’s tradition is to base the Yahrzeits list on the Hebrew calendar. Those who wish to have a name read on a Friday night close to the conventional (Gregorian) calendar date are asked to please email admin@tbelc.org or call the Temple office.

*Asterisks indicate that a loved one has been permanently memorialized with a plaque in the Temple sanctuary. If you are interested in acquiring a plaque for your loved one, contact the Temple office. Current TBE members may purchase a plaque for $360. Non TBE members may purchase a plaque for $600.

Please consider bringing your family and friends to watch this important play. While we are proud of Mia and the LCCT cast, we also encourage you to spread the word because surveys show that there are significant gaps in knowledge about the Holocaust. We must never forget!

Sisterhood Update

Dear Girls,

Here comes September. Wow, how this year is flying! Your Council has been meeting and planning and working hard to bring chills and thrills to you and your families, or just you. You deserve it! As I always say, we need you, we really do need you... so, if you're a worker bee, we need you just as much as if you were the GREAT IDEA LADY. So, you know where we are, call, text or email and jump in. Council meetings are fun and we laugh as much as we argue, so come check one out. The next meeting is Monday, October 7th at 4:30. But, if you are working and want to be involved, let us know. Seriously, we need you.

Just a reminder  if you volunteered to bring a dessert to Erev Rosh Hashanah, here ya go. It's in a couple of days, in fact, Wednesday, October 2nd ... so, get cooking, baking or shopping... we don't care... we love sweets! *******

Also, for those who offered to bring food for the Break the Fast, look for your reminder email from Lynn... what you volunteered to bring and how much we need... thank you!

WRJ Pacific District Conference

On September 14th Lynn Zeemont, Lenore Hindin, Gerie Muchnikoff and Stefani Singer attended the WRJ Pacific District conference held at Temple Mount Sinai in El Paso. Lynn commented, "It was obvious to me that all their planning made this a success; from the beautiful welcome gifts to the meals and snacks, and the selection of the facilitators and their featured programs, it was certainly worth the trip."

Among the 10 workshops offered, Lynn and Stefani attended "Hidden Legacies: Sephardic History of the Border", and "Growing Leadership for Change". Lenore and Gerie checked out "Spiritual Strength for Change" and "Coming Together for Artistic Change: Art is What We Make It". We four were quite impressed with the speakers and their topics.

There was early Torah Study and a Soulful Shabbat morning service for those who were early risers, lunch followed by the keynote speaker, Susie Novick. The afternoon followed with two 90-minute blocks of workshops, a sweet and emotional Havdalah service under the stars, and finally dinner with a presentation about the YES Fund which supports wide ranging and diverse Jewish groups around the world. Lenore was really moved, "As our voices bounced off the mountains under a half-full moon, it was an incredible way to end the event, singing 'Adonai Tzuri V'goali' and our favorite, 'Miriam and the Women Danced'".

TBE Sisterhood provided centerpieces for the meal tables. Thanks to Lynn, the pumpkins were gorgeous, and Stefani made YES signs to pop out and get the ladies' attention. We knew it already, but as a WRJ member, TBE Sisterhood is welcome to access tons of programs, information and speakers and we intend to talk about it. Sunday, attendees were invited to visit the El Paso Holocaust Museum or the Hal Marcus Art Gallery and Studio. None of us opted to return, but we all agreed that we should plan a Sisterhood outing to visit these attractions in the near future. Overall, this event was very enjoyable and informative.

New Year's Greetings From Board President, Diane Fleishman

L'Shona Tova.

I, and the entire Board want to wish you a happy, healthy New Year.

This is a time for reflection. It has been a year of positives and negatives, sadness and joy. We at TBE have had challenges and have met them. We have come together as the caring community that we are.

It is important in this time of increasing antisemitism that we remain close and positive.

As I think about my year, I am grateful for this community and the support we give each other. I accepted the honor of being the President of the Board because I am committed to the Temple. I am far from perfect and may have inadvertently offended you. For that I ask your forgiveness.

-Diane

Minutes from Temple Beth-El Board of Trustees Meeting September 19, 2024

The meeting was called to order at 6:07 followed by an invocation by Rabbi Evette Lutman and VP Jeff Lewis. Rabbi Evette, Debbie Levy, Sheri Spiegel, Deb Lendyke, Martha Roditti, Dee Cook, Joel Siegel, Wendee Lorbeer (Zoom), Donna Popky, Jeff Lewis, and Bill Stein were in attendance.

VP Jeff Lewis provided the President's Report on behalf of President Diane Fleishman who was out of town. Jeff reported that the Library Committee will meet, the Constitution Committee is actively meeting, and the Youth Committee is currently active. Jeff proposed that we garner donations for Casa de Peregrinos year-round and will write an article in the Adelante with the request and logistics.

In her Rabbi's Report, Rabbi Evette described a well-attended Shofar across Borders on Zoom, with attendees as far as Brazil. Much of her focus is on preparing for the High Holidays, including many activities. Glenn Phillips will help with sukkah construction again this year. She seeks volunteers for readings, the Religious Practices Committee developed a "Signup Genius" or non-web-based methods for volunteering. On Nov 9, Linda Sweenie and Glenn Phillips's band, Shir Balev, will play a fundraiser; Saturday night 9/21/24 is Game Night sponsored by the Youth Group. All are welcome.

Joel Siegel, Treasurer, reported that we are tracking closely to what we planned this year if not slightly ahead, partially due to extraordinary donation for $10K in July 2024. Yet we are behind because religious school has not yet collected tuition. Seven donations for the Yizkor Book have arrived; deadline is 9/24. A discussion ensued about waiving Religious School tuition to stay competitive with other religious school in town. Joel made a motion to waive RS tuition for one year, to be re-evaluated in June 2025. Wendee seconded the motion. The vote passed unanimously. Religious School families will be encouraged to make donations for supplies and field trips. The Religious School Donation Account can be used to pay expenses this year.

A Membership Report from Deb Lendyke entailed plans to support Charles Kuznikoff to attend High Holiday services with assistance. Nametags for board and all service attendees are forthcoming to advance social networking at TBE. New Member Open House will take place Saturday Oct 19, 6:30-8:30 pm. All are invited to welcome new and prospective members in the sukkah.

There was a request to change the First Friday worship event to Second Friday due to conflicts with arts activities on the first Fridays of each month. First Fridays at TBE are currently scheduled for Oct 18, 2024; Nov 1, 2024. A board member will reach out to First Fridays leaders to discuss and report back.

Ways and Means Committee reported that they are working on ticket sales for the concert on November 9, and the Artisan Marketplace on December 8. Plans for publicity for both are underway.

Regarding infrastructure, Jeff Lewis reported an agreement with a new security firm for three hours for Friday night, three and a half hours on Saturday morning, and three hours on Sundays when school is in session. Call Jeff if you need security, he will do his best to organize it. He also reminded us that false alarms cost a $300 LCPD fine.

In new business, Debbie Levy asked who is in charge of toilet paper. Mark Singer is taking care of it. Thank you, Mark Singer. A board member needs to be present at every service; Jeff will confirm with the security firm that the board members will be walked to their cars after they lock up. The meeting was adjourned at 7:49 pm

Adelante Submissions:

As we continue another busy year, I need your help more than ever. This newsletter is so much better when it has many voices (that and I am horrible at remembering to take pictures). Send me your pictures of family Shabbat or Temple events, book recommendations, recipes, illustrations, etc. I will share as many as space allows in each month's Adelante. Please send pictures in JPG and files in .doc format.

The deadline for turning in articles, items and photos is the 20th of each month (unless otherwise stated). Late items may not be included. Please keep to that schedule to facilitate a timely completion of the Adelante! All content can be e-mailed to me, Beth Tierney at cambrien73@gmail.com

BETY Game Night

On Saturday, September 21, the Beth-El Temple Youth hosted “Beneath the Waves”, a community game night for all Temple members and friends. All present had a swimmingly good time playing board games, Twister and Musical Chairs. There were new friends and old of all ages at this festive fundraiser for BETY. If you missed it, be on the lookout for more opportunities for intergenerational fun and bonding. Thank you to our youth for putting this event together.

Gail Braverman is a Board Member at Temple Emanu-El in San Diego. Gail writes “Community Corner”, for her synagogue’s monthly newsletter and has graciously offered to share her columns with us. She is a Marriage & Family Therapist.

CHANGING HABITS: THINK SMALL

Gail L. Braverman, LMFT

Whether you realize it or not, a lot of your daily behavior is composed of habits. These are automatic behaviors that you do without thinking. You do them in the same way every day. From the moment we open our eyes in the morning, get out of bed, brush our teeth, take a shower, or fix breakfast, we are running on habits.

According to researchers, we can get remarkable results by making one tiny change at a time.

Simplicity changes behavior. When a behavior is easy to do, it doesn’t require lots of motivation. Weeding your garden for two minutes requires less motivation than weeding for five hours. Cleaning and putting away a few dishes is easier than cleaning the whole kitchen. Motivation is not reliable. It shifts day by day, even minute by minute.

Here are a few ideas for building habits you want and getting them to work for you:

1. What makes you come alive or fills your heart with joy? Look for a habit that would do just that.
2. Stay engaged in this new habit. Our brains LOVE novelty. “Wake up” out of your old habitual programming.
3. Create an attitude of gratitude. If you look at changing a habit as something you are grateful for, you have more reason to do it.
4. Connect with your purpose. Why am I doing this? Look at the big picture and remember the reason you want this new habit.
5. It’s the little things that count. “It’s the little details that are vital. Little things make big things happen”. John Wooden

B. J. Fogg, a Stanford University professor, created a method for designing new habits. He calls it a recipe and it has three parts: Part 1 - After I You connect an already existing routine in your life that will remind you to do the new habit.

Part 2 - I willThe new habit you want and make it super tiny and super easy

Part 3 - Then celebrate! Something you do to create a positive feeling inside yourself like a big smile, clap your hands, do a fist pump, give yourself a thumbs-up, tell yourself good job.

Here are several examples:

After you brush your teeth, don’t snack anymore. Clap your hands.

After you notice you are feeling stressed, take a few deep breaths. Then congratulate yourself.

After you hear your alarm in the morning, get up without hitting snooze. Then smile.

When you feel successful you’ll want to do that habit again.

Reflection: Think of one habit that you would like to add to your routine.

Today’s Practice: Run the habit through the Recipe: After I I will And then congratulate yourself.

I welcome your comments: gbrave3333@aol.com

Langner Challenge Grant:
Over the Top

In September Temple Beth El surpassed Bernice Langner's matching funds challenge of $10,000. We did so via a single generous donation of $6,500 that put us not "just" over the top, but "way over the top". With that donation and an early anonymous $5,000 donation, we raised $14,361. Thank you to all who donated!
