We offer condolences on the passing of:

Dee Cook, longtime congregant and friend, who died on March 13. Funeral Arrangements pending.
May her memory be for a blessing.

In order to ensure that the name of your loved one will be recited during services, we have instituted the following practices:

- The Hebrew dates for each week's Yahrzeits are listed in each Adelante.
- Names are read on the Shabbat following the Yahrzeit, or on the day, if it falls on that Shabbat.
- Hebrew vs. conventional (Gregorian) calendar: The temple's tradition is to base the Yahrzeits list on the Hebrew calendar. Those who wish to have a name read on a Friday night close to the conventional (Gregorian) calendar date are asked to please email admin@tbelc.org or call the Temple office.

*Asterisks indicate that a loved one has been permanently memorialized with a plaque in the Temple sanctuary. If you are interested in acquiring a plaque for your loved one, contact the Temple office. Current TBE members may purchase a plaque for $360. Non TBE members may purchase a plaque for $600.

Dearest Esteemed Sisterhood Ladies,

Winter was chilly, downright cold, but Spring brings warmth and bright sunshine...and the potential super bloom of poppies along Baylor Canyon and behind the Organs along the road to Aguirre Springs! It brings the hope of renewal. Renewal of gatherings, celebrations, friendships that may have languished, and so much more. Spring brings hope and a resurgence of energy and the excitement of new plans. Let us march into Spring together, Sisters! Coming up is Passover and you have already received the flyer and registration form (also included below) for our April 13th Community Second Seder. Please download and print out your reservation form, complete it and return to Lynn Zeemont (1236 Regency Ct., Las Cruces, NM 88007) or drop off at the temple now now now! You can also find printed copies available for pick up at the temple.

Rosh Chodesh Adar was a lovely gathering at the temple, led by Lenore Hindin. The next circle is Rosh Chodesh Nisan, Sunday, March 30 from 4-5:30 pm at the temple [Rosh Kodesh Iyar will be on April 28]. Don't bring anything except yourself and your curiosity and your interest in spirituality and meaning as a Jewish Woman. Please email or call (no texting please) Lenore Hindin 575 888-4644 or lenoreh@cruzio.com so she can plan accordingly.

Sisterhood joins together in mourning the loss of our beloved Dee Cook, an active and dedicated member of Temple Beth-El for decades. Dee loved being involved in planning, helping, and making our temple the best it could be in so many capacities... on the Board, on the Sisterhood Council, on the Aesthetics committee and much more. Dee had a warm sense of humor and delighted in a bit of fun when once she and I shared black and white earrings. She wore hers and one of mine and I wore mine and one of hers. Dee's wisdom, knowledge, and presence will be missed by all of us.

Sisterhood and your Council welcome new Council members Gerie Muchnikoff and Fern Forman. Gerie has always been a friendly, reliable and energetic "worker bee" and Fern will be taking over the scheduling of Oneg hosts for Friday night services, so be ready for a phone call or email asking for your help in hosting a Friday night Oneg. If you have a special occasion or Yahrzeit to honor, hosting an Oneg during that month would be a wonderful way to celebrate and to help your Sisterhood. Sisterhood is so thankful for Shari Abramowitz... for joining the Council when we invited her, for stepping up and helping out at many of our activities, like the BIG DANCE as DJ SHARI A, as cook and comrade, and as a wonderful and dear friend to each of us, the Sisterhood and the temple.

We look forward to spending an inspirational evening with all of you and your families at the Community Second Seder on Sunday, April 13th. Don't miss out.

Shalom y'all,
Your Council

Your Voice – Our Future

It's human nature to be wary of change. But like Nachshon bravely stepping into the Sea of Reeds, when we have faith and the support of our community, we can move forward with a little less fear. We need to keep this in mind as our temple community begins yet another transition.

I am honored that the Board is trusting me to be your Interim Spiritual Leader, but even before my tenure begins on August 1st, I hope to provide a framework to help our community move ahead with more confidence and less trepidation about the future. To this end, we are inviting every temple member to attend one of three meetings in April where we will walk through a targeted process to help us explore our congregational values and goals. We are calling this initiative Your Voice – Our Future; the process and questions will be identical in each meeting, so please choose to attend the one that's most convenient for you.

Sunday April 3, 3:30-5:00pm,
Tuesday April 8, 6:30-8:00pm, or
Thursday April 10, 5:30-7:00pm

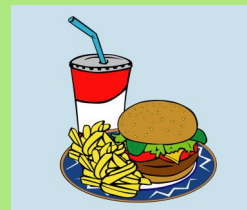

We will also host a separate Zoom session for those unable to attend in person. We truly need to hear from everyone to ensure our congregation can navigate the changes ahead and move forward with confidence and a clear vision.

One final thought as we begin this change journey together. I'd like to suggest that we practice something called "radical kindness." What I mean by this is in all our interactions with each other, we need to keep the notion of kindness top-of-mind. Even when someone isn't particularly nice to you. Even if you disagree with someone. When you approach someone in conversation, be kind. When you speak to someone about someone else, please, please be kind. Remember, "al sh'losa devarim, al haTorah, v'al haAvodah, v'al gemilut chasadim:" the world stands on three things...on Torah (our roadmap of how to treat each other), on prayer (our aspirations) and on acts of lovingkindness.

B' shalom,
Linda Matorin Sweeney

Board Meeting Summary March 20, 2025

The meeting was called to order at 6:10 pm. In attendance: Donna Popky, Mark Singer, Rabbi Evette Lutman, Lynn Zeemont, Bill Stein, Joel Siegel, Deb Leyndyke, Sheri Spiegel, Martha Roditti.

Diane Fleishman provided an invocation to remember Dee Cook, mentor, friend, Temple historian, and a matriarch of the congregation in the last many years. May her memory be for a blessing.

Steve Haydu visited to discuss updates to the Constitution, after merging the Constitution and By-laws. Minor changes were discussed. The Constitution Committee will invite congregants to view and ask questions about the new version, ahead of a congregational vote for ratification.

President's report: Annual Meeting May 22, 2025. Committees to be filled ASAP: Budget & Nominating. Board appointees to be filled: Sisterhood Liaison, new Treasurer.

Rabbi's report: Rabbi has been supporting a homeless community member via funds and moral support; discussion on best way to continue support. Idea: invite for Passover seder. Dispute in Jewish community about Palestinian and Israeli conflicts. Senate Bill SB0195, preventing Antisemitic Discrimination in New Mexico, is currently pending before the Senate Health and Public Affairs Committee. Found out at last minute before the vote thanks to the Berksons. Lack of Jewish federation in NM contributes to lack of timely awareness on such legislative issues particular to New Mexico. Rabbi asked Jeff Steinborn for guidance on whether / how we can express support.

Treasurer report: This year we will be in the red 20-50k instead of 60k. If we had a silent auction, it would bring in half of what was normally raised at our auction event which was impossible to pull off.

Committee reports: Sheri passed around a printout of committee reports from Library, Sisterhood, Youth Group, Social Action, and Biblical Garden. Biblical Garden updated webpage and donation form to facilitate donations to commemorate Dee Cook's many contributions. Jeff Lewis provided updates on the Mensch Club's social events and services to the temple.

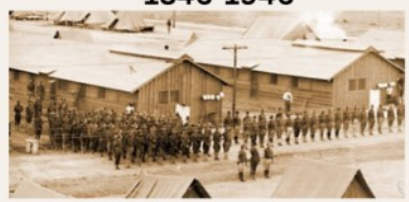

New Business: Memorial / celebration of life of Dee Cook in partnership with the Berksons and Paul Kramer. Mark Singer is getting a quote for parking lot repairs. Upcoming informational meetings to envision future of congregation, led by Linda Sweeney.

Focaccia Bread Making

Teacher Abby Rothman assisted by Alison Mann, taught focaccia bread making to 8 TBE women on March 9th and 10th.

Lynn Zeemont expressed everyone's amazement at how easy it was to produce a fabulous bread saying, "Even I can do this!"

MEGILLAH READING

This Purim, the TBE youth group led a dramatic reading of "the whole megillah". The reading was made so much better by our four narrators, our Religious School student "shadow cast", and Rabbi Evette's chanting of the final chapters in Hebrew. A special Kol Ha'kavod goes out to BETY president, Morgan Tierney for her adaption of the megillah to the TBE stage and for allowing me to be the stage manager of this production. Thank you also to Stefani Singer for these photos.

"I give and bequest to Temple Beth-El, located in Las Cruces, New Mexico, the sum of $ ____ [or ____ percentage of my estate as finally determined for federal estate tax purposes]."

A will or codicil should be prepared by an attorney.

THERE'S NOTHING LIKE SPRING

There's nothing like Spring in the desert southwest
 Days growing longer, baby birds in their nest
 Flowers start to bloom often up through the sand
 Greenery sprouting all over the land
 The sunshine seems brighter, it's warmth on my skin
 Clouds somehow seem whiter than they've ever been
 But don't let your guard down, and don't be misled
 The coming of allergies fills many with dread
 At first it's just breezy and we're good with that
 And then comes the wind blowing hairstyles and hat
 What starts as happy days, warm and relaxing
 Turns into crappy days, outdoor times taxing
 If it just was the wind blowing like in L.A.
 We'd still be outside with our work and our play
 But no, in the southwest, with wide open spaces
 The wind picks up sand which smacks into our faces
 We huddle, we crouch, we hide and we sneeze
 Don't open your windows on days such as these
 Wind kicks up dust and the dirt and oft times
 The wind creates jingling and tinkling of chimes
 Some hate the coming of winds in the Spring
 The coughing, the sneezing that springtime winds bring
 But I've never minded the dirty wind days
 When we can't see the Organs because of the haze
 I love the seasons, Winter, Spring, Summer, Fall
 And whatever comes with them, I welcome it all!

New Member Spotlight

Every month we will introduce you to one of our new members/families of Temple Beth-El.

Judy and Richard Wentzel were originally from the Midwest. They met through a friend while living in Dubuque, Iowa and have been married for 53 ½ years. Judy was affiliated with a conservative temple while growing up in Cleveland.

Richard was originally from Wisconsin.

Richard worked for John Deere and Judy worked at home, having 5 children and numerous pets to occupy her work day. After retiring, the family moved to Albuquerque, then to a remote area outside of San Luis, Colorado. The home (that Richard built himself) was in the mountains, 9000 feet altitude, and they lived there for 20 years. To give you an idea of how remote the area was- they had to go into town to a community well to get water! They celebrated the Jewish holidays with a couple who lived a mile away and were very Orthodox, because there were no synagogues in the area.

Judy says they are so happy to have made the move to Cruces, and to have joined Temple Beth El. She is grateful for the kindness and good people that she has found in her new hometown.

Judy's hobbies are reading, gardening and she is enjoying TBE's craft classes. Richard likes to build things and working with his hands. Some of you may enjoy these activities as well, so welcome our newest members when you see them at TBE events!

Adelante Submissions:

As we continue another busy year, I need your help more than ever. This newsletter is so much better when it has many voices (that and I am horrible at remembering to take pictures). Send me your pictures of family Shabbat or Temple events, book recommendations, recipes, illustrations, etc. I will share as many as space allows in each month's Adelante. Please send pictures in JPG and files in .doc format.

The deadline for turning in articles, items and photos is the 20th of each month (unless otherwise stated). Late items may not be included. Please keep to that schedule to facilitate a timely completion of the Adelante! All content can be e-mailed to me, Beth Tierney at cambrien73@gmail.com
